PSALM 103

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

You are very great, O Lord, my God;

clothed in pomp and brilliance;
arrayed with light as with a cloak.

Stretching out the sky as a tent-cloth,
covering Your lofty halls with water,

You make the clouds Your conveyance.
You surge on the wings of the wind.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live.
I will praise my God as long as I last.

Would that my thoughts be pleasing to Him:
and I will rejoice in the Lord.

The sun knows the time of its setting.
You establish darkness, and it is night.

How great are Your works, O Lord!
in wisdom You have wrought them all.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory be to You. O God! (3 times)

KATHISMA

PSALM 120

In my distress I called to the Lord, and he answered me.
O Lord deliver me from lying lip from treacherous tongue.
What will he inflict on you, with more besides,
O treacherous tongue?
Sharp arrows of a warrior with fiery coals of brushwood.

Woe is me that I sojourn in Meshech, that I dwell amid the tents of Kedar!
All too long have I dwelt with those who hate peace.
When I speak of peace, they are ready for war.

PSALM 121

I lift up my eyes to the mountains,
whence shall help come to me?
My help is in the name of the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

May he not suffer your foot to slip;
may he slumber not who guards you:
Indeed, he neither slumbers nor sleeps,
the guardian of Israel.

The Lord is your guardian;
the Lord is your shade,
He is beside you at your right hand.

The sun shall not harm you by day.
Nor the moon by night.

The Lord will guard you from all evil;
He will guard your life.
The Lord will guard your coming and your going Both now and forever.

PSALM 122

I rejoiced because they said to me,
We will go up to the house of the Lord.”
And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem -
Jerusalem, built as a city
With compact unity.

To it the tribes go up,
The tribes of the Lord,
According to the decree for Israel,
To give thanks to the name of the Lord.
In it as set up judgment seats, seats for the house of David.

Pray for peace of Jerusalem!

May those who love you prosper!
May peace be within your walls,
prosperity in your buildings.
Because of my relatives and friends
I will say, “Peace be within you!”
Because of the house of the Lord, our God,
I will pray for your good.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and forever and ever. Amen
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! Glory be to You, O God (3X)

SMALL LITANY

Priest: Again, and again in peace let us pray to Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy

Priest: Again, and again in peace let us pray to Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy

Priest: Remembering our most holy and immaculate, most blessed and glorious Lady, the Mother of God and ever-virgin Mary, together with all the saints, let us commend ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God.

People: To You O Lord

Priest: (Silently) O Lord our God, be mindful of us sinners and your unprofitable servants, as we call upon your holy name, and put us not to shame for having placed our hope in your mercy, but graciously grant us, O Lord, all the means of salvation; make us worthy to love and fear You with all our heart and to accomplish your will in all things.

(Aloud)

For You are a good and loving God, and we give glory to You, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

People: Amen

O LORD, I HAVE CRIED

PSALM 140 (Tone 1)

O Lord, I have cried out to You, hear me; Hear me, O Lord!

O Lord, I have cried out to You, hear me.

Receive the voice of my prayer

When I call upon You Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer rise like incense before You;

And the lifting of my hands as an evening sacrifice

Hear me, O Lord!

Praise the Lord all the nations,

Proclaim His glory, all you people.

(Tone 1)

As you walked in the flesh, O Jesus, in the land beyond the Jordan, you said to those who were with you:

Our friend Lazarus has died and has been placed in the tomb.

But I rejoice for you, my friends, for you will learn that I know all things and that with God I am one, even though by nature I appear as man.

Therefore, let us go and give life to Lazarus so that death may recognize this victory

and the perfect consummation I shall bring about by granting great mercy to the world.

Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
Eternally will His truth endure

O faithful, let us imitate Martha and Mary and offer virtuous deeds as ambassadors before the Lord, that when he comes he may uplift our minds which now lie dead and full of misery in the tomb.

Without life they have no sense of what they are neglecting and are unaware of the awesomeness of God.

Behold, O Lord, now give life to all and grant us your great mercy, as once you had pity on your friend Lazarus and by your awesome power raised him from the dead.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,
now and for ever and ever. Amen

For two days Lazarus has been in the tomb and sees all generations of the dead.

He beholds such strange and awesome things and a countless number held within the power of death.

His relatives weep bitterly before his tomb;
but Christ is on his way to give life to his friend and to consummate his plan for all of us.

Blessed are you, O Savior; have mercy on us.

(ENTRANCE with candles and incense)

Priest: Wisdom! Stand aright!

HYMN OF THE EVENING

O Joyful Light! Light and Holy Glory of the Father Immortal
The heavenly, holy the Blessed One, O Jesus Christ!
Now that we have reached the setting of the sun,
And see the evening light we sing to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
It is fitting at all times to raise a song of praise in measured melody to You.
O Son of God, the Giver of Life. Behold the universe sings Your Glory.

Priest: Let us be attentive! Peace be with all. Wisdom! Let us be attentive!

Prokimen 1:

I will walk in the presence of the Lord
In the land of the living.

Verse: I love the Lord for he has heard the cry of my appeal.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Genesis (45:1-16)

Priest: Let us be attentive!

Reader: Joseph could no longer control himself in the presence of all his attendants, so he cried out, "Have everyone withdraw from me!" Thus no one else was about when he made himself known to his brothers. But his sobs were so loud that the Egyptians heard him, and so the news reached Pharaoh's palace. "I am Joseph," he said to his brothers. "Is my father still in good health?" But his brothers could give him no answer, so dumbfounded were they at him.

"Come closer to me," he told his brothers. When they had done so, he said: "I am your brother Joseph, whom you once sold into Egypt. But now do not be distressed, and do not reproach yourselves for having sold me here. It was really for the sake of saving lives that God sent me here ahead of you. For two years now the famine has been in the land, and for five more years tillage will yield no harvest. God, therefore, sent me on ahead of you to ensure for you a remnant on earth and to save your lives in an extraordinary deliverance. So it was not really you but God who had me come here; and he has made of me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his household, and ruler over the whole land of Egypt.

“Hurry back, then, to my father and tell him: ‘Thus says your son Joseph: God has made me lord of all Egypt; come to me without delay. You will settle in the region of Goshen, where you will be near me—you and your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and everything that you own. Since five years of famine still lie ahead, I will provide for you there, so that you and your family and all that are yours may not suffer want.’ Surely, you can see for yourselves and Benjamin can see for himself, that it is I, Joseph, who am speaking to you. Tell my father all about my high position in Egypt and what you have seen. But hurry and bring my father down here.”

Thereupon he flung himself on the neck of his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept in his arms. Joseph then kissed all his brothers, crying over each of them; and only then were his brothers able to talk with him.

Prokimen 2:

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make:
I will call on the Lord's name.

Verse: I trusted, even when I said: I am sorely afflicted.

(Then the celebrant taking a candle and the incense blessed the altar and the people.)

Priest: Wisdom! Let us be attentive!

(Blessing the people) The Light of Christ enlightens all.

(The people make three prostrations)

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Proverbs (21:23-22:4)

Priest: Let us be attentive!

Reader: Thus says the Lord: He who guards his mouth and his tongue keeps himself from trouble. Arrogant is the name for the man of overbearing pride who acts with scornful effrontery. The sluggard's propensity slays him, for his hands refuse to work. Some are consumed with avarice all the day, but the just man gives unsparingly. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination, the more so when they offer it with a bad intention. The false witness will perish, but he who listens will finally have his say. The wicked man is brazenfaced, but the upright man pays heed to his ways. There is no wisdom, no understanding, no counsel, against the Lord. The horse is equipped for the day of battle, but victory is the Lord's.

A good name is more desirable than great riches, and high esteem, than gold and silver. Rich and poor have a common bond: the Lord is the maker of them all. The shrewd man perceives evil and hides, while simpletons continue on and suffer the penalty. The reward of humility and fear of the Lord is riches, honor and life.

And deliver us all and your faithful people from impurities; sanctify the souls and bodies of all of us with a sanctification that cannot be taken away, so that partaking of these divine mysteries with a pure conscience, faces unashamed and enlightened hearts, and being enlivened by them, we may to be united with your Christ Himself, our true God, who said "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him."
