Feast of Christ, Lover of Mankind - Sunday, June 26, 2022

First Antiphon: How delightful is your dwelling place, Lord of hosts; my soul yearns and pines for the courts of the Lord.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

My heart and flesh rejoiced in the living God.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

The sparrow found itself a home and the swallow its nest wherein to lay its young.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

Third Antiphon: My heart bursts forth with a noble theme; I tell my works to the king.

Tropar, tone 6: Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us.* We sinners bring this appeal to You, O Master,* for we have no defense.* Have mercy on us.

You are more radiant in beauty than the sons of men; grace flowed from your lips.

Have mercy on us, O Lord.....

In your splendor and your beauty bend your bow, prosper and reign for the sake of truth, meekness and beauty.

Have mercy on us, O Lord.....

At the Little Entrance: Sing praise to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy is forever.

Have mercy on us, O Lord.....

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; now and forever and ever. Amen!

Kondak, tone 8: To you, Lord, my Commander and Champion,* I your servant, ascribe my victories.* Delivered from eternal death* I address my thanks to you.* Since you have ineffable mercy,* free me from all kinds of danger as * cry out:* “Jesus, son of God, have mercy on me.”

Prokimen, tone 4: I will proclaim your name to my brethren; in the midst of the assembly I will sing your praises.

Verse: I will fulfill my vows before those who fear him.

Epistle: A reading from the Epistle to the Hebrews. (2: 11-18)

Brothers and Sisters! He who consecrates and those who are consecrated have one and the same Father. Therefore he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, “I will announce your name to my brothers, I will sing your praise in the midst of the assembly”; and, “I will put my trust in him”; and again, “Here am I, and the children God has given me?” Now since the children are men of blood and flesh, Jesus likewise had a full share in ours, that by his death he might rob the devil, the prince of death, of his power, and free those who through fear of death had been slaves their whole life long. Surely he did not come to help angels, but rather the children of Abraham; therefore he had to become like his brothers in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God on their behalf, to expiate the sins of the people. Since he was himself tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Alleluia Verses: All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord. All the families of the nations shall fall down before him.

Gospel: John 3:13-17

The Lord said: "No one has gone to heaven except the One who came down from there — the Son of Man who is in heaven. Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that all who believe may have eternal life in him. Yes, God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him may not die but may have eternal life. God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him."

Instead of 'It is truly right': My soul, extol the most dear Jesus,* our Loving Lord.* With one accord let us the faithful extol the Word of God,* ineffably become man for us from the Holy Virgin.* In his ineffable wisdom he came from God* to restore Adam who was mortally felled by the serpent's sting.

Communion Hymn

All the ends of the earth saw the salvation of our God. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Vatican releases programme for Pope Francis' Canada visit

The Holy See Press Office releases the programme for Pope Francis' Apostolic Journey to Canada, due to take place on 24-29 July. With just over one month to go before the Pope is scheduled to depart for his Apostolic Journey to Canada, the Vatican Press Office on Thursday released details of the visit. The Pope is set to depart Rome's Fiumicino Airport on the morning of Sunday, 24 July, and receive an official welcome to Canada at Edmonton International Airport that same day. His first public events start on Monday, 25 July, with a meeting with Indigenous Peoples: First Nations, Métis and Inuit in the city of Maskwacis, around 70 kilometers north of Edmonton. He then returns to Edmonton to meet in the afternoon with Indigenous Peoples and members of the parish community of the Sacred Heart.

On Tuesday, 26 July, Pope Francis celebrates a public Mass at the Commonwealth Stadium in Edmonton, before traveling outside the city to Lac Ste. Anne, where he will participate in a pilgrimage and Liturgy of the Word. The Pope wraps up his visit to western Canada on Wednesday, 27 July, departing for Quebec City.

He will receive an official welcome from the Governor General of Canada and meet with the Prime Minister. Afterwards, he meets with civil authorities, representatives of Indigenous Peoples and members of the diplomatic corps. Thursday, 28 July, sees the Pope celebrate a public Mass at the National Shrine of Saint Anne de Beaupré. In the afternoon, he prays Vespers with bishops, priests, deacons, consecrated persons, seminaries, and pastoral workers at the Cathedral of Notre Dame.

On Friday, 29 July, Pope Francis holds a private meeting with members of the Society of Jesus at the Archbishop's Residence in Quebec, before meeting with a delegation of Indigenous Peoples at the same venue. He then flies to Iqaluit, the capital city of the Canadian territory of Nunavut. The Pope meets there privately with students of the former residential schools at the primary school in Iqaluit. His final public event is a meeting with young people and elders at the same school. Pope Francis departs from Iqaluit Airport on Friday afternoon and is scheduled to land at Rome's Fiumicino Airport on Saturday morning.

Feast of Christ - Lover of Mankind

"May Christ our true God, through the intercessions of His all-pure Mother; of the holy, glorious, and praiseworthy Apostles... and of all the saints, have mercy on us and save us, for He is good and loves mankind." (Dismissal, Divine Liturgy)

This seemingly-obvious fact is often repeated in our church-services, – that God is “good” and loves us. We need to be reassured of this fact, again and again; that He, indeed, loves “us.” That is to say, He loves the people “we” are now, as we are, with all our strengths and weaknesses. I need to embrace this astonishing truth, again and again, so that I can see myself as God does, both honestly and mercifully. In the inimitable words of Thomas Merton, “... The man who is not afraid to admit everything that he sees to be wrong with himself, and yet recognizes that he may be the object of God's love precisely because of his shortcomings, can begin to be sincere. His sincerity is based on confidence, not in his own illusions about himself, but in the endless, unfailing mercy of God.” Help me, Lord, be good to myself, as You are to me.

The Canon Luhovy Assembly Ukrainian Educational Foundation is pleased to announce that seven bursaries of $300 each are available to Ukrainian Catholic students, seminarians and religious sisters, of the Archeparchy of Winnipeg, who attend post-secondary institutions, seminaries and private Catholic secondary schools. The bursary application can be obtained at the back of the church. DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: SEPTEMBER 30, 2022
