Слава Ісусу Христу!

Glory be to Jesus Christ!

Dear Parishioners,

I am sure that all of us have heard the following saying: "All that glitters is not gold". These few words remind us that the attractive outward appearance of something is not a reliable indication of its true value. It truly takes an effort not to exchange the treasure, that we have within, for outward glitter that does not last long.

At this time of year, new beginnings, the new school year and the new liturgical year (Sept. 1st), are before us. Even though they may not be connected, each follow a similar pattern: learn, explore, and reflect, so that true knowledge and wisdom will be discovered, which helps us to share our treasures.

The first major holy day of the new liturgical year is September 8th, the feast of the Nativity of the Mother of God (Mary's Birthday). Divine Liturgies on that day will be 9:00 am and 7:00 pm. Please make an effort to attend. Also, please keep in mind is our Parish's Praznyk, a celebration of our patron, St. Joseph and our parish faith community, is next Sunday, September 11th. Metropolitan Lawrence will be here as our main celebrant. Following the Divine Liturgy there will be a BBQ. All are welcomed.

*Peace & Prayers,
Fr. Dmytro*

Catechism

Dear Parents of Catechism-aged children,

Catechism will once again be starting this fall. The purpose of this message is to collect information regarding the number of students and their ages. As well as update contact information. If you have a child/children who will be attending catechism at St. Joseph's this fall please reply by using the email that is below. Please provide the following information:

*Your child's name
Child's age and school grade
Your name and email for future emails.*

Also, please feel free to pass this information on to anyone else who has children who would like to attend catechism. Once we know rough numbers of the program, we will organize classes/teachers and provide more information towards the end of September.

If you have any questions feel free contact our catechism coordinator, Paul Thullner, at the following email: catechism.stjosephukr@gmail.com

Nativity of the Mother of God

September 8

"Your Nativity, O Mother of God, has made joy known to the entire world, for from you, dawned the Sun of Righteousness, Christ our God. He abolished the curse and gave the blessing, and by making death of no effect, He bestowed on us eternal life." On this day, our Church acknowledges the birth of the Theotokos (Mother of God).

As the Church's Liturgical Year begins on September 1st, it is only fitting that the Nativity of Mary, the Mother of God, be celebrated as the first major feast of the year. The birth of the Theotokos is the beginning of the act of incarnation and our salvation through Jesus Christ.

The record of the birth of Mary is not found in the Bible. According to the apocryphal writings which are not a part of the New Testament Scriptures, Joachim and Anna were a pious Jewish couple who were old and childless. Their inability to have children caused them intense grief and considerable embarrassment. In Jewish tradition, barrenness was viewed as a curse because it meant the woman was unable to produce a possible Messiah for the people. Joachim and Anna prayed earnestly to the Lord for a child, vowing to dedicate their child to the service of the Lord if He found favor with their request. In answer to their unwavering fidelity to God, the elderly couple was blessed with the child who was destined to become the Mother of the Messiah, Christ. The Nativity of the Theotokos marks the change of the times when the great and comforting promises of God for the salvation of the human race from slavery to the devil are about to be fulfilled. This event has brought to earth the grace of the Kingdom of God, a Kingdom of Truth, piety, virtue and everlasting life. The Theotokos is revealed to all of us by grace as a merciful Intercessor and Mother. As the morning star announces the approaching sunrise, so also Mary's birth heralded the coming of the "Sun of Justice," the promised Messiah, who was to destroy the power of Satan, reopen for us the gates of heaven, and assure divine blessing to the entire human race. This is the reason of our rejoicing. At the same time, the liturgical hymns exalt devotion and righteousness of Joachim and Anna, who by their "devout life have brought good fortune to all of us." By their devotion and persevering prayers, they proved their complete confidence in God. And it paid off, since they were blessed by a God-given child, the Theotokos as Mary is referred to in the liturgical hymns.

This is the practical lesson of the feast of Mary's nativity. Our unwavering confidence in God, supported by persevering prayer, will open for us the door of divine mercy and secure for us a constant flow of God's blessings. In our daily struggles, we must never give up. We must, as Abraham did, even "against hope believe in hope" (Rom. 14:18) trusting Almighty God.
