Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday our Byzantine Church commemorates the Holy Fathers of the Seventh Ecumenical Council of 787 AD. This was the last Council before the Church became divided between East and West and later within the West. As it happens in our day, they too were subject to fake news. Because the mystery of God is beyond comprehension, it is always difficult to express it in words. Yet this Mystery has been revealed to the world through the Scriptures and through our Lord Jesus Christ. To counteract false teachings about who God is or who Jesus Christ is, all the bishops of the Church would gather together in an Ecumenical Council. During this Council they would invoke the Holy Spirit to guide them to clearly proclaim the Truth about God (the Trinity) and about Jesus, that is, it be true to the revelation passed down to them. The Seventh Ecumenical Council was the one that affirmed that Jesus is truly a human being like us and can be depicted in icons, paintings and statues before which the faithful can venerate. It may seem self-evident now, but at that time the whole Muslim world, which was encroaching on the Christian world forbade the use of any images in worship. We commemorate the Fathers of this Council and thank God for the clarity of the faith that they brought to us.

Today we begin our catechism program with over 20 children participating. We pray that the teachers and the children grow in their love for God and His Truth this coming year.

Again I wish to thank all those who participated in making perogies this past week. Always a good time and a good fundraiser.

The Redemptorists are having a "concert" fundraiser at the end of November to raise funds for the soldiers (Medical and humanitarian needs) in Ukraine during this time of this unjust war. Details in the bulletin.

Prayer to Our Mother of Perpetual Help

O Mother of Perpetual Help, we come before your holy Icon seeking to follow Your Son. Mary, please gently guide us to enter more deeply into the mystery of Redemption. Help us as we contemplate the Incarnation, Passion, Death & Resurrection of Your Son, Jesus, Our Redeemer. Help us to receive and accept the Light of Christ present in your arms. Mary, we present our needs to you and ask that you place them in the hands of your Son. Most Holy Mother of God, Our Mother of Perpetual Help, save us.

Amen

O Most Holy Mother of God, save us!
Пресвята Богородице, спаси нас!
